ABOUT ME

I born in 1992. Raised in n a small village in India. Been hard at work since 2007. I am a multidisciplinary creative. I did bachelor's in computer science. Then feel in love with design. So started by masters in visual experience design. I am creative artist a youtuber, Acupuncturist, and national level player in badminton. Interested in changing the existing design or bad to a effective user friendly interface. Instead of commercial business,a design can also be really helpful in simple, understandable and easy access.
